

411 Sunset Place

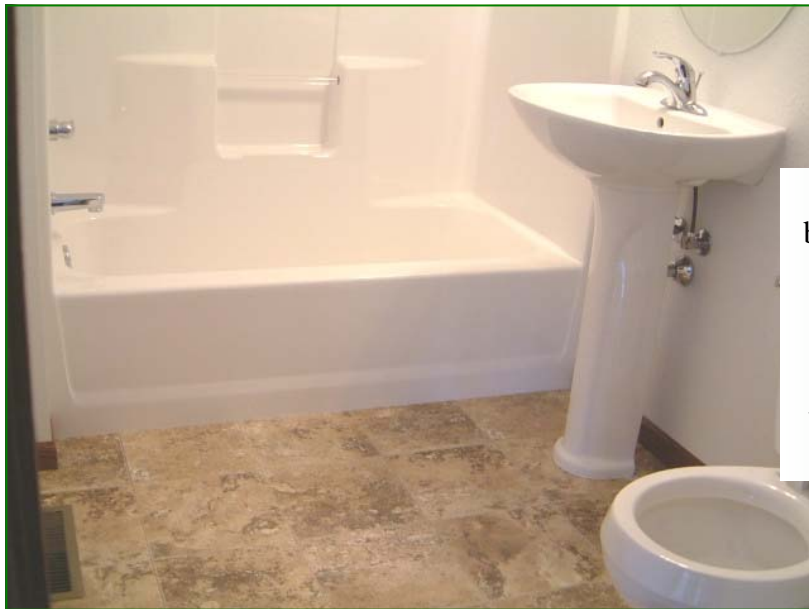

New light fixtures to match the overall décor of the house were added throughout

The updated kitchen included new appliances, new cabinetry, hardware, and a modern sink

The new open floor plan created more livable space between the living room, dining room and kitchen areas.

The new bathroom space was made possible by replacing the existing vanity with a pedestal sink.